THE BOX - LULLABY

The world that we all live in,
A little candy box,
We have it all
Don't think no more
Hush now love
And sleep, don't moan

Inside the box there's all you'll Ever think you'll need
And so what if
You can't have it
Keep trying love
Work all day long, yes.

That is all your head needs
To keep away from wrong
From darkened thoughts
To leave the box
Hush now love
And say no more

Cause walls have grown big ears love
And they can hear you moan
Keep silent hon
Stay cozy and warm
Hush now love
Go back to work

See, the box has skies pure, clear and blue
Now stop your moaning, lest they crash on you

'Cause you've been naughty
see Ari, Niko and Rose and many more like you my love
under the box
don't breathe no more

The world that we all live in
A little candy box
It has it all
Chains, guns and walls
Hush now love
Or die alone...
